

Key things to know for March 31

Amrock is becoming Rocket CloseSM on March 31, bringing title and closing fully into the Rocket® brand to create a seamless, simplified experience for brokers and their clients.

What's changing on March 31?

New name, same great service – Remember to bookmark RocketClose.com.

New contact email – Reach us at Hello@RocketClose.com for any questions or support.

Same trusted phone number – You can still call us at (888) 848-5355 for assistance.

For Correspondent Lending - remember to Update wiring instructions to reflect Rocket Close.

What's staying the same?

Logins for valuation, title, and settlement services – Your portal logins will work and won't require any updates. Go to RocketClose.com/Login to login.

eClosing – Our eClosing solutions remain in place to help you close faster and more efficiently.

Dedicated Account Executive support – Your AE will still be your go-to resource for all things title and closing.

National coverage – Our extensive reach ensures we can support your closings nationwide.

Why does this matter?

Bringing title and closing under the Rocket brand ensures a fully aligned experience that makes doing business easier, faster, and more efficient – so you can focus on helping more clients achieve homeownership.

We're excited for this next chapter and to continue delivering the best closing experience in the industry.

For any questions or additional details, contact us at Hello@RocketClose.com or call (888) 848-5355.
